

Work Opportunity: Fundraising Intern (International Development)

Global Minorities Alliance
Charity No: SCO45088
www.globalminorities.co.uk

Global Minorities Alliance is a Glasgow based charity which advocates for the rights of the most vulnerable communities in the world. We believe in Justice, Peace and Equality for everyone regardless of one's background. To achieve our aims, we run research, advocacy, awareness raising and community development campaigns and projects.

Currently, we are looking for a Fundraising Intern (International Development) for a three-month internship programme starting from October – December 2020 (with some flexibility).

Criteria: A final year undergraduate or a graduate who has keen interest in International Development and is passionate to make a difference for the most vulnerable groups in the world. You will have excellent research and analytical thinking, excellent written communication skills, critical thinking and project management skills.

Responsibilities: You will be required to work through the funding database and apply for funding applications by writing funding proposals and applications to donor organisations based on feedback from GMA board of trustees/membership. You will be required to apply at least 3-5 funding applications for the whole internship. The successful projects will be launched in 2021.

Mentoring Opportunity: You will also get an opportunity to be mentored by one of GMA members. This will help you develop your professional and personal career ambitions in International development and/or related fields. You will also get insight into GMA's established projects.

Location and working hours: This is a home-based role. Your working hours will be flexible and can be tailored around your needs. You will be line-managed by one of the trustees of the organisation.

How to apply: If you are interested in applying for this internship. Please send us a 500 words statement on what makes you an ideal candidate along with your CV to info@globalminorities.co.uk with two referees. Please note that this is an unpaid role.

All applications will be considered by GMA board of Trustees.

Application deadline: 15 September 2020
